Dr. Lindahl,

As our hearing on Friday, November 5th is contemplated to be a quick hearing (this is Motions Day and the most the Court will give us on the docket is 20 minutes), I would suggest a written report to submit to the Court would be best. Please include overview re: meetings held to date; observations; recommendations at this point. If you prefer to come to Court, let me know, as we could have you provide the information by brief report. If you decide however to provide a written summary, I would like to circulate the summary in advance of the Court hearing. I do not anticipate that the Judge would require your personal appearance at this hearing, but will likely be willing to accept your written report. And, as always, thank you for your continued assistance.
Sandy
